SAYS THE WAR IS NEAR A CLIMAX

Field Marshal French Declares, However,
That It Does Not Mean the End.

London, Nov. 11.—Two optimistic views of the war from the point of view of the allies are given a prominent place in the morning newspapers. The first is a quotation from the speech made at the lord mayor's banquet Thursday night by Field Marshal Viscount French. The field marshal said:

"It seems that the contest is approaching a climax to come either now or in the spring. We must remember, however, that a climax and an end are not necessarily the same thing."

The second opinion was expressed by Gen. Alexis Brusiloff, speaking to a British correspondent at Russian headquarters. Gen. Brusiloff said:

"The war is won to-day. It is merely a question of speculation as to how much longer it will be before the enemy is convinced that their cause is irretrievably lost."

The general added that he spoke with authority in declaring that the whole of Russia, from the emperor to the humblest soldier, was determined to protect, help and support Rumania in every possible way.

"Russia will see," he said, "that our brave little ally does not suffer for espousing the cause of the allies."

GERMAN LOSSES 3,755,693 ACCORDING TO LAST LIST

This Total Includes Officers and Men,
But No Naval or Colonial Casualties—910,234 Killed.

London, Nov. 11.—German casualties since the beginning of the war reported in German official lists total 3,755,693 officers and men, according to an official British compilation made public yesterday. Of this total 910,234 were killed. The figures do not include casualties among the naval forces or the colonial troops.

The German casualties reported by the same source for the month of October total 199,875 officers and men, including dead 31,321.

PANIC IN ANTWERP OVER DEPORTATION

21,000 Citizens Have Been Taken into Germany, Echo Belge
Reports.

London, Nov. 11.—The Echo Belge, as quoted by Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent, says that according to the latest news the Germans have transported 21,000 citizens of Antwerp to Germany. A great panic prevails in Antwerp and in the surrounding country, adds the newspaper, which reports also that three men who tried to cross the Dutch frontier were killed by the shock from the electric border barrier.

GIVES UP CHIHUAHUA?

Six Hundred of Carranza's Troops Arrive at Juarez

THAT CAPITAL IS EVACUATED

Joint Conference Resumes
Its Sessions—Both Sides Eager

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 11.—A special train yesterday arrived in Juarez with approximately six hundred Carranza troops on board. American army officers believe this to be the beginning of the evacuation of Chihuahua City by General Trevino, but General Francisco Gonzales in Juarez declared the troops were being sent north for duty in western Chihuahua. He denied Chihuahua City was to be evacuated.

GENERAL MAYCOTTE KILLED.
Villistas Reported Victorious in Fighting at Santa Rosalia.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 11.—Severe fighting between Carranza and Villa soldiers at Santa Rosalia with the Villa men victorious is reported by persons reaching the border from Monterey. The body of General Fortunato Maycotte, Carranza general, is said to have been brought to Monterey and several wounded officers are reported arriving. Ten wealthy British residents of Chihuahua, half of their number women, arrived at Juarez Thursday night with other refugees. They reported that the foreign consuls, including the British, still remained in the city, although the foreign colony had been reduced to a comparative few except the Germans, who with a few exceptions are staying behind.

While Chihuahua City is still calm, it was learned that some apprehension was felt over the loyalty of the garrison. Gen. Trevino was credited with an effort to raise silver money to pay the men. Some of the soldiers were said by refugees to be tearing up their paper money on pay day and throwing it in their officers' faces. The Carranza paper dollar is now down to one cent in gold, they said.
